

For those who are concerned about Rebecca (George) and Rudy Walker, owners of the Eagle Lake General Store in Spalding. They want you all to know that Rudy has been battling cancer since February, and he is scheduled to be released from the hospital 6-23 at which time they plan on returning to the lake. Will open the store by the 4th of July if all goes to plan. He is getting better and nearing the end of his treatments and they will be coming home sooner than later.
